SAFETY FACTS

EDUCATION for Health & Safety Committees

- Every Joint Health & Safety Committee member or H&S representative has a right to 2 days of paid education leave;
- Section 44 of W210 Workplace Safety & Health Act obligates the employer to ensure you receive 2 days paid leave every year.
- Education is more effective if worker and management counter parts attend together.
- Vary courses amongst committee members so some receive education in ergonomics, or workplace violence or prevention methods.
- Courses selected by joint committee are available from many sources.
